

CURRICULUM VITAE

SEULGIE LIM

Education

Ph.D. Boston University

September 213 - May 2020

Department of Political Science / Graduate Certificate in African Studies

Dissertation: Exploring the Political, Social, and Theoretical Aspects of Gender Parity in Senegal

Research interest: Dynamics of religion and politics, gender issues, women in politics, women's political identity, women's political participation, women's rights, feminism, gender parity law in Senegal, women's movement in Senegal, human rights, Islam, African studies, International Relations, Comparative Politics

M.A. Seoul National University

March 2010 - February 2012

Major in International Cooperation

Thesis: The January Jasmine Revolution in Egypt: a Turning Point for Re-thinking Feminism and the Notion of Public Sphere for Egyptian Women

Graduated with High Achievement Honors

B.A. Seoul National University

March 2003 - August 2008

Major in International Relations and Minor in English Language and Literature

Thesis: Comparative Analysis of United Nations Peacekeeping Operations in Namibia and Rwanda

Work Experience

Bates College

August 2020 - Present

Assistant Professor, Department of Politics

The Center for Learning and Teaching, Boston University

September 2019 - May 2020

- Serving as a graduate teaching consultant (GTC)
- Supporting the CTL's existing programs, such as the graduate student teaching workshop series, organizing and being part of a panel for the Graduate Student Teaching Day 2019 at BU, developing new programs, increasing awareness among the graduate students at BU

The Frederick S. Pardee Center for the Study of the Longer-Range Future

June 2015 - August 2015

- Pardee Summer Graduate Fellow
- Research paper titled "Senegal and the Gender Parity Law - Navigating through religion and rights"
- Interdisciplinary fellowship working with graduate students from various disciplines

- Volunteer activist
- Research in social issues, legal policies and amendments regarding foreign migrant workers in Korea, participation in rallies and conferences, organization of events to raise social awareness, translation for migrant workers in meetings with government agencies, assistance for free Korean classes for the migrant workers

Seoul Journal of Korean Studies, Kyujanggak Institute of Korean Studies

April 2012 - April 2013

- Editor's assistant
- Assisting the editor of the Seoul Journal of Korean Studies, an English journal in Korean Studies, and organizing international symposium and conferences

Research Assistant for Professor Jin-Hyun Paik, Dean of GSIS

March 2010 - February 2012

- Assisting the professor with his various researches, running his research institute (Haesung Institute for Ethics in International Affairs), organizing seminars and arranging diverse administration formalities
- Subjects of research projects included:
 - Corporate Social Responsibility (Conference in November 2011)
 - International Maritime Dispute (Project funded by the Korean Maritime Institute)
 - Nuclear Proliferation Treaty (Book project)
 - Procedures in International Court (Book project)

Teaching Experience

Instructor

PLTC171 "International Politics" (Fall Term 2021, 2022, Bates College)

PLTC210 "International Human Rights in Africa" (Fall Term 2021, Bates College)

PLTC290 "Politics of Sub-Saharan Africa" (Fall Term 2020, 2021, 2022, Bates College)

GS/PT363 "Women and Women's Movements in Africa" (Winter Term 2022, 2023, Bates College)

GS/PT155 "Gender, Power and Politics" (Winter Term 2021, 2022, 2023, Bates College)

PLTC263 "Women and Women's Movements in Africa" (Winter Term 2021, Bates College)

PO171/IR271 "Introduction to International Relations" (Summer 1 2020, Summer 2 2018, Summer 1 2017, Boston University)

PO380/IR300 “Topics in International Relations: Women and the Women’s Movement in Africa”
(Summer 2 2019, Boston University)

WR150 “Women in the ‘Non-West’” (part of the Writing Program) (Spring 2017, Boston University)

WR100 “Women in the ‘Non-West’” (part of the Writing Program) (Fall 2016, Boston University)

Committee and Service Work

Gender and Sexuality Studies Committee, Bates College, Member	September 2021 - Present
Committee on Teaching and Learning, Bates College, Member	September 2021 - Present
Graduate Fellowship Committee, Bates College, Member	September 2021 - Present

Emerging Scholars Network (ESN), African Studies Association (ASA), Executive Council, Chair
(Three-year term) October 2021 - Present

- In charge of organizing membership wide business meetings, representing the interests of the network to the ASA Board, taking on leadership role in key conversations concerning programming, events, and membership objectives
- Revitalized network and council that had been inactive since 2018
- Organized virtual panel on publishing for emerging scholars in African Studies (October 2021)
- Organized virtual roundtable on emerging scholars and their challenges during COVID-19 (November 2021)
- Organized virtual business meeting for emerging scholars at ASA (November 2021)
- Organized information session on panel and paper submission for emerging scholars specifically (February 2022)
- Organized professional development workshop on alt-ac career (November 2022)

Outreach activities at Bates College

- | | |
|--|--------------|
| - Faculty Spotlight (Zoom session with prospective students) | March 2022 |
| - Master Class for Fall Visit Day | October 2022 |

Fellowships and Awards

Periclean Faculty Leadership Program Fellowship (Spring 2023)

American Council of Learned Societies (ACLS), Intention Foundry Research Grant (Spring, Summer 2022)

Boston University Institute on Culture, Religion & World Affairs (CURA) Colloquium 2019-2020

Long-Term Graduate Research Abroad Fellowship, Boston University (Spring 2018)

Royal Air Maroc - African Studies Association Student Travel Award (Fall 2017)

Long-Term Graduate Research Abroad Fellowship, Boston University (Fall 2017)

Graduate Writing Fellowship, Writing Center, Boston University (Spring 2017 / Fall 2016)

Study of Muslim Societies and Civilizations Research Funding, Boston University (December 2016)

Short-Term Graduate Research Abroad Fellowship, Boston University (Summer 2016)

Graduate Summer Fellowship, Frederick S. Pardee Center for the Study of the Longer-Ranger Future (Summer 2015)

Teaching Fellowship, Boston University (Fall 2014 - May 2019)

Conference Participation & Presentation

- ASA (African Studies Association) Annual Conference, (November 2023)

Chair of “New Horizons in Knowledge Production” panel

Paper Presentation: “Decentering Sources of Knowledge through African Fiction”

- American Council of Learned Societies, Intention Foundry, (May 2022)

Three-day workshop on inclusion and diversity in scholarly societies

- ASA (African Studies Association) Virtual Annual Conference, (November 2021)

Chair of “Emerging Scholar Careers and Covid-19” Roundtable

Chair of “Emerging Scholars Network Business Meeting”

- ASA Annual Conference (November 2019), Boston, MA

Paper Presentation: “A Senegalese Conversation with African Feminism: as seen through the Law on Absolute Parity”

- Pipeline for Emerging African Studies Scholars Workshop (PEASS, November 2019), Boston, MA

- Women of Color in Political Science Workshop (August 2019), Washington D.C.

- MPSA Annual Conference 2019 (April 2019), Chicago, Illinois

Paper Presentation: “The Gender Parity Law in Senegal: A Disconnect between Reality and Dreams”

- NPSA Annual Conference 2018 (November 2018), Montreal, Canada

Paper Presentation: “The Gender Parity Law in Senegal: A Disconnect between Reality and Dreams”

- MPSA Annual Conference 2017 (April 2017), Chicago, IL

Paper Presentation: “Senegalese Women at Work: the Forces Behind the Gender Parity Law”

- APSA Annual Conference 2016 (September 2016), Philadelphia, PA

Paper Presentation: “Anti-Slavery Activism in Mauritania and Social Movement Theory”

- Organizing Committee of the 24th Annual Graduate Student Conference in African Studies at Boston University (March 2016), Boston, MA

“Mobilizing Africa: Innovation, Syncretism, and Appropriation”

- NPSA Annual Conference 2015 (November 2015), Philadelphia, PA

Paper Presentation: “Senegalese Women at Work: the Forces Behind the Gender Parity Law”

- ISA Northeast Annual Conference 2015 (November 2015), Providence, RI

Paper presentation: “Appropriation of International Norms by Senegalese Women”

- Organizing Committee of the 23rd Annual Graduate Student Conference in African Studies at Boston University (April 2014), Boston, MA

“Globalization, Permeation, and Exchange: Africa and the New World Order ”

- 23rd Annual Graduate Student Conference in African Studies (April 2014), Boston, MA

Paper presentation: “Modern-Day Slavery, a Battle Scene for Religious, Political, and Social Norms: The Case of the Islamic Republic of Mauritania ”

Teaching Conference Participation

- New England Faculty Development Consortium (NEFDC) Fall 2019 Conference, Worcester, MA

- Second Annual TLC at APSA 2019 Conference, Washington D.C.

- First Annual TLC at APSA 2018 Conference, Boston, MA

- Fifth Annual “Teaching at Teaching Intensive Institutions” Conference (September 2018), Westfield State University, MA

- Third Annual “Teaching at Teaching Intensive Institutions” Conference (October 2016), University of Massachusetts, Boston, MA

Publication

“Islam and Politics in West Africa: Intricacies of the Relationship as seen through Mali and Senegal”, In, The Palgrave Handbook of Islam in Africa, edited by Fallou Ngom, Mustapha H. Kurfi, and Toyin Falola (Palgrave Macmillan, 2020).

“The Absence of Secularism in Senegal,” In, Secularism in Comparative Politics - Religion across Political Contexts, edited by Jonathan Laurence (SpringerLink, 2022).

Skills and Other Experience

- Languages:

- Korean (Native)
- French (Fluent, 14 years of French schooling, from Kindergarten to High School)

- Spanish (Fluent, DELE Level B2)
- Wolof (Beginner)